

Please leave the New Jersey strict telephone code as it is. Do not loosen the restrictions as we can finally answer the phone sure that a nuisance call will not disturb our meals. We had reached the stage where we did not answer the phone at all, preferring to get a message on the answering machine then calling family or friend back when sure it was worth the calling. This is a time waster solution but the only way we could survive.